BROOKLYN N.Y. AUG 30 11-30 A.M. 1917

NAVY YARD STATION

U.S. POSTAGE 2 CENTS 2

Miss Frances Levine
70 Somers St.
Brooklyn, N. Y.

c/o Post Quartermaster's Office,
Marine Barracks,
Navy Yard, B'klyn, N. Y.
Aug. 30th, 1917.

Darling Frances:-

Got home last night with a terrible headache. Don't know & how I got it, but it gave me a peach. Still got it this morning.

One of the fellows, a wop, stole a Jewish fellow's sheet & was caught by the Jew, & believe me, there was some fight in the yard. The wop hollered out "You win, you win" to the Jew. All the non-commissioned officers witnessed it & never said a word. The 2 were really threatened with the big if they ~~to~~ didn't fight it out, so they fought.

How are you, Toots? Kept pretty busy? Take care of yourself!

Lovingly

Joe